

Test Case

Summary: Test the “Remember me” Functionality

Preconditions:

1. The PC is not public
2. Set the browser to remember cookies
3. Go to the web application
4. Navigate to login page

	Test Steps:	Expected Results:
1	Verify that the checkbox is active or not. Click on “REMEMBER ME” checkbox. Check that the checkbox is enabled by default or when the user enters “EMAIL” and “PASSWORD” input fields. Fill in “EMAIL” and “PASSWORD” input fields.	The checkbox is active.
2	Check that password gets saved in browser cookies when the user selects “REMEMBER ME” checkbox. Fill in “EMAIL” and “PASSWORD” input fields, select “REMEMBER ME” checkbox, press “Log in” button.	The password is saved in browser cookies.
3	Check that by default the email and password are showing in the field or not when the user checks the “REMEMBER ME” checkbox and visits the site again. Sign out of the web application and navigate the login page again.	The “EMAIL” and “PASSWORD” input fields are blank.
4	Verify that when a user login into the system without selecting “REMEMBER ME” checkbox. Fill in “EMAIL” and “PASSWORD” input fields, “REMEMBER ME” checkbox is unselected, press “Log in” button.	4. The password is not saved in browser cookies.